Work Experience

Android Software Engineer September 2022-September2023 Dailymotion(Paris)

At Dailymotion, I worked on creating a mobile advertising SDK utilizing Kotlin Multiplatform Mobile (KMM) and Android SDK. This SDK efficiently displays ads at video initiation and intervals, while also tracking user interactions and error handling. Additionally, specialized ad controls were developed for enhanced functionality.

Android Software Engineer June 2021 – August 2022 IBM(Casablanca)

While working at IBM, I had the opportunity to work with a couple of clients:

- AirCanada: Worked with a cross-functional international team in an agile (scrum) environment. The project is still ongoing, as the team is still working on adding new features, and the app has around 1M downloads in the play store at the moment.

Android Software Engineer Jan 2020 – June 2021 Gemography(Rabat)

When working at Gemography, I primarily worked on developing android applications for Digiserv, I worked with a team of 10 developers, and I was one of two android developers. The following apps were the ones I worked on:

- Dayra: A group financing application. Participants take turns paying each other after a certain period of time to help save up for their own projects.
- Mchina: An android application for carpooling. Its main features include proposing trips, booking trips, evaluations...
